Day

Sisters

M. Nethery
Clark,
McEwen,
Payne

The Pastor presided.

The Pastor stated that the meeting had been called with particular reference to the radio program.

After some discussion it was moved by Brother Spain, seconded by Brother McKittrick, that Brother Steelberg be authorized to again interview the manager of WIP and draw up and sign a contract for Sat. Eve. for one-half hour from 11:00 to 11:30 P.M. at $37.83, but if this proposition is rejected by Station WIP, that we dispense with the radio service and take a vacation for the summer months.

Carried and so ordered.

Brother Steelberg read a letter addressed to the Pastor and Board of Elders dated March 22, 1937, from Brother and Sister John Wilson, asking for the church letter. This matter will be taken up at the quarterly business meeting.

There being no further business, on motion the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Clara M. Payne
Church Clerk

(Brother Steelberg made arrangements with Station WIP for one-half hour, 11:05 to 11:35 on Saturday nights)
