

OFFICIAL BOARD

A meeting of the Official Board, together with the Out-Station and Open Air Committee and a representative group of the Young People, was held on Wednesday evening, June 15, 1949, at the Church, 19th and Green Streets, Philadelphia.

There were present: Bro. Wallace S. Bragg, presiding, Bros. Hagan, Fred Heintz, C. McPherson, W. McAnney, A. Clarke, Robert Lafferty, Fred Hepworth, Frank Simokat, Sis. Griffin, Maude Nethery, C.M. Payne, of the Board. Bro. George Waggoner, John Lanham, Harry Valentine, Perna, Julia Bogden and Ann Calla, of the Young People.

Brother Bragg stated that the meeting had been called to discuss the matter of tent meetings that the Young People were interested in holding this summer.

Julia Bogden Stated that the Young People were interested in holding tent meetings in the outlying sections of the City, with the Older Young People as speakers, with a view to starting new Pentecostal Works in other sections.

Bro. George Waggoner said that the matter had previously been considered with the Trustees, Deacons and Elders, and the Out-Station of Open Air Committee, and as a consequence he had secured the price of a tent which he felt would be suitable for the work, which was $427.23, with a 5% discount.

Discussion was had in which Harry Valentine, John Lanham, Fred Hepworth, Bro. Hagen, Sis. Griffin, Harry Waggoner, Albert Clarke participated, as well as Julia Bogden.

Bro. John Lanham made a motion that a tent be secured and that tent meetings be held for the three weeks following the Camp. Motion was duly seconded and carried.

The meeting adjourned with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

Church Clerk
