

GOD CARES

God cares when the trials of life overwhelm you
And threaten to drown you in sadness and woe;
God cares when life's very foundations are shaking,
When deep waters of trouble would fain overflow.

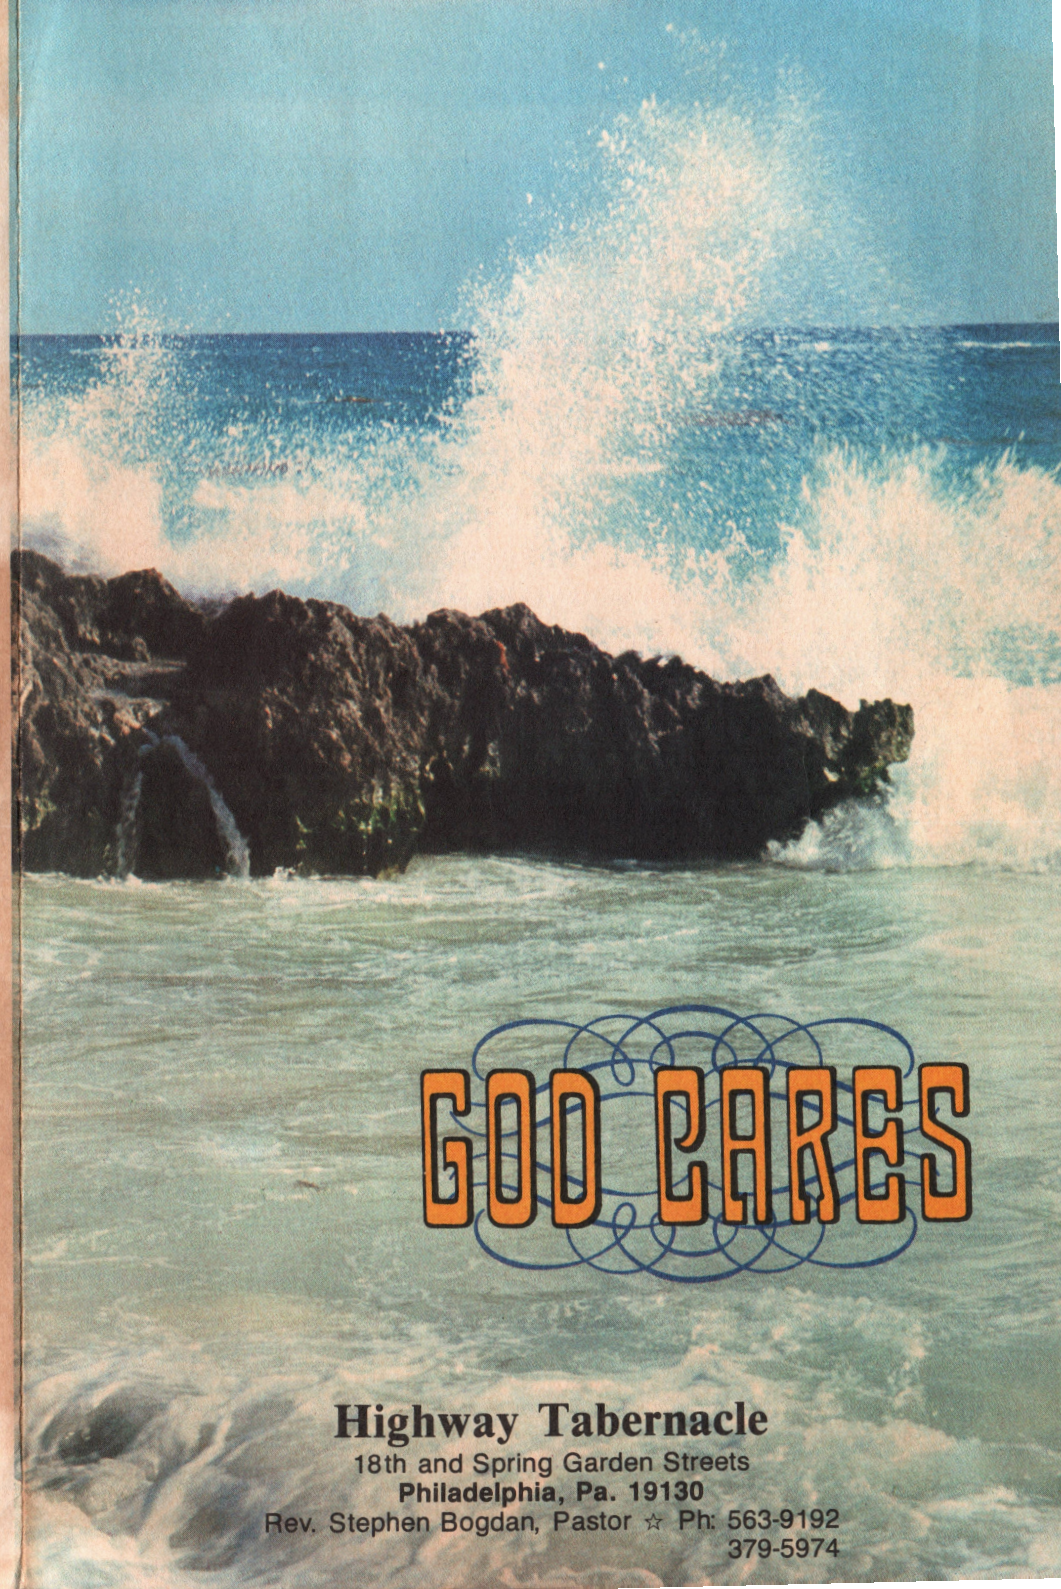

God cares and remembers 'mid daily frustrations
When the enemy whispers "just what is the use?"
God careth whenever your heart is nigh breaking
And for doubting in Him there seems lots of excuse.

God cares in life's race when you think you are losing
Understands when life's doors seem to shut in your face;
He's promised His love will remain with you always,
Turn tears about face with a smile in their place.

God cares when the road seems rough and uncertain,
Understands when life's burdens grow heavy and grim;
He bids you look upward when hope has deserted,
He bids you stop doubting, find anchor in Him.

Maturity

According to some serious students of human nature, there are distinct marks of maturity one can use as guides to self-evaluation. Mature people are in constant display of traits that foster success and productivity in all areas of life.

Every body of believers is in constant need of mature believers who will openly live the Word of God in a consistent manner. Living thus serves as a proper, Godly role model for all other Christians and before those who know not Christ as Lord.

Here are some manifestations of Maturity:

Patient...They are able to pass up immediate pleasures when necessary to achieve long range goals.

Calm...They are able to hold their tempers and control their anger. Self control is a distinct mark of a mature person.

Empathetic...The mature person responds to the need and feelings of others.

Resolute...They are capable of staying with and sweating out projects in spite of opposition and discouraging setbacks.

Positive...Mature people retain a zest for life and are enthusiastic about their work and goals.

Courageous...The mature person is able to conquer the fear of failure and to defeat any inclination to always play it safe. They succeed because they dare to fail.

Cooperation...The mature person can work with others, for the common goal of all, and tolerate differences.

Dependable...They are able to cooperate and hold up their end of the load. They have learned the value of being a team member.

May God through His spirit work these qualities in all our lives. Try memorizing Galatians 5:22 and 23.

CONDOLENCES

Sister Grace Lynch went home to be with the Lord this past week. Pastor Bogdan officiated at the funeral on Wednesday. Sister Lynch was best known for her work among the children and being a vital part of the intercessory Sunday afternoon prayer group. We pray the comfort of the Holy Spirit will bring solace to the family. The flowers next to the pulpit this morning are in memory of Sister Lynch.

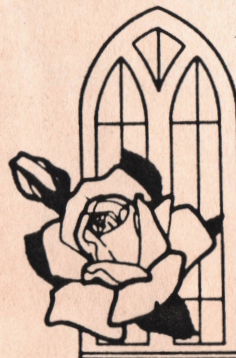

PRAYER CONCERNS

Anthony Cannuli is still in need of prayer. He is in Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Robert McClure is in need of God's healing touch.

OUTSIDE MINISTRY

Pastor Bogdan will minister at the Peter Becker Retirement Home on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Edith Schultz and Miss Margaret Parker are residents there.
