

A WMC PSALM

Blessed is the woman who has the vision of WMC work, who walketh not in the council of the disinterested, nor standeth in the way of those who would work, nor sitteth in the seat of the criticiser.

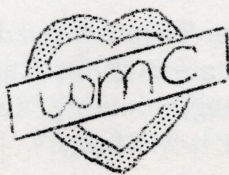

But her delight is in service rendered, and in this doth she meditate day and night.

She shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water; her fruit shall be tasted in all nations; her hands shall never be idle; her church shall continually prosper.

The disinterested are not so, but are like the man who said, "I pray thee, therefore have me excused." Therefore the disinterested shall not stand in the judgement with sheaves, nor inherit the rich reward of the faithful worker.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the faithful, but the disinterested shall go unrewarded.
