

A cold bath in the morning is a sure way of waking up and feeling refreshed for the day.

Clean habits and clean bodies are necessary for Gospel work, but Madurai's heat makes water and bathing popular daily treats.

Not only does the body need cleansing and refreshing but daily our souls need the refreshing that comes from the presence of the Lord. One of the happiest times in Tamil Bible Institute is the morning chapel services.

Shoes are considered disrespectful, thus they are removed and left outside the door during services. Exodus 3:5 is taken literally.
