

Tamil people love music. They can make music out of anything.

But more important God has put a song in their heart and their melody shall exalt him throughout South India.

Principal S. Abel Gives a word of Exhortation in morning chapel.

Holy ghost anointed preaching is a sure way for a victorious day.