JUST A REMINDER...

On Friday, November 1, the College and Career Fellowship will be privileged to view the third and fourth segments of HOW SHOULD WE THEN LIVE?, the film series adapted from Francis Schaeffer's book by the same title.

These segments deal with the Renaissance and the Reformation. As in the segments on the Roman Age and the Middle Ages we viewed last month, Dr. Schaeffer presents the ebb and flow of Western thought and its effect on the culture of the times. Discussion afterward relates the high points and periods of decline of those ages to events in our present day.

Each segment includes a brief review of earlier segments, so you'll not feel lost if you weren't able to make it last month.

Preceding the films we will partake of another scrumptious meal, prepared by our resident culinary artist, Cheryl Fry, and her able assistants. This delightful experience is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. We only ask that you contact Cheryl, Steve Bogdan or Susan Waligunda at church, or call Steve at 379-5974, so that there will be sufficient food for all.

You deserve the treat this evening will afford.

Join us--we'll all be happier because of it!
