

Under the almost-finished ceiling, painter Andy Seamans puts on some finishing touches.

Scars are being healed at fire-ravaged church

More than a year after a five-alarm fire raged through the Highway Tabernacle Church at 18th and Spring Garden Streets, restoration work continues. The fire on Aug. 21, 1986, caused about $1.2 million damage to the brownstone church, built in the 1850s. Formerly the Fifth Baptist Church, the building is now the home

