

Financial Support.

"But my God shall supply all your need."—PHIL. 4 : 19.

The work in all departments is sustained entirely by free-will offerings of God's people, our Constitution rigidly forbidding all unscriptural methods for raising money. All members are expected as part of their religious duty to determine for themselves before God how much they can and will give regularly and cheerfully for the work of the Lord.

It should be stated for the glory of God that no fair, festival, or entertainment of any kind for the raising of money by secular means has ever been held in connection with the work, neither has it been our custom to make individual solicitation of money, yet by divine blessing hundreds and even thousands of dollars have been lovingly contributed by the people of God, to meet all the needs of the work and to enter new fields of service as they open before us.

Negotiations have been closed for the purchase of the property now occupied, and more than the one thousand dollars required for the first payment has been subscribed and paid. A permanent fund has been established for the payment of the balance as it becomes due, or before.

Contributions for all branches of the work may be sent to the Treasurer at the church, or enclosed in envelopes and dropped in the basket at any service.

Persons asking for contributions and claiming to represent this work should be refused by our friends, as all such solicitations are unauthorized.

Relation to the Denominational Churches.

"One is your Master, even Christ ; and all ye are brethren."—MATT. 23 : 8.

We desire in no way to antagonize the work of neighboring churches or missions, or interfere with their members or interests. The field is large and needy enough for all, and we simply aim to gather to the Saviour and His fold the neglected ones for whom others have not been able to care.

Our desire is to work in the spirit of good fellowship and love, and true Christians of every name will be ever welcome to attend our meetings and share with us and carry to their respective fields such blessing and inspiration as the Lord may bestow.

As the result of a principle adopted early in the work, it is believed that all Christian workers who have come to labor permanently among us have done so from a prayerful conviction of duty rather than through any personal solicitation, it having been the humble desire to abound in love and service rather than in influence and numbers.

The Bible School.

"Search the Scriptures."—John 5 : 39.

This important department is under a faithful corps of officers and teachers and has a membership of over 200, with interesting Bible classes for young