

Brother Wallace S. Bragg was serving as Secretary-Treasurer of the Oklahoma District when he received a letter of invitation to become Pastor of Highway Tabernacle.

Under his dedicated ministry, the Sunday School Department was expanded and new interest was created in this area of the work.

Brother Bragg continued on with the Radio Ministry and encouraged more activity in the line of street meeting work and the establishment of more out-stations, reaching a still larger group of needy souls.

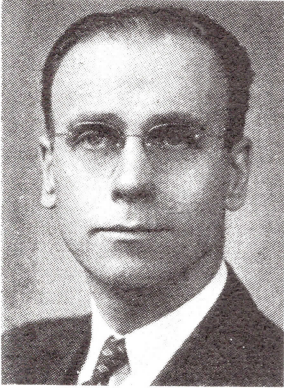

During the Thanksgiving Convention of 1943 the mortgage on the 19th and Green Streets building was burned, amidst the rejoicing of the members and friends in attendance.

Highway opened its doors to a service for the Spanish-speaking people in the vicinity of the Church and arranged to have an Assembly of God Spanish pastor conduct the services.

Brother Bragg was also instrumental in starting a work among the Jewish people in Philadelphia, the actual contacts being made by Reverend Monty Garfield, Jewish Evangelist. The ministry to the Jews still continues on as of 1969, with gainful results.

In 1955 Brother Bragg accepted a call to pastor the church at Spokane, Washington, and shortly thereafter, entered the evangelistic ministry, traveling on an international scale.

Brother Bragg was called to his eternal home with the Lord during the year 1968. His ministry will never be forgotten by the many appreciative members and friends of Highway Tabernacle.

Rev. Wallace S. Bragg
1945 - 1955

"The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it." Psalm 68:11