

James and Laurie Goetz of Restoration Ministries International present

The Nonprofit Prophet<sup>tm</sup>

The Restoration Ministries International ministry letter.

Jim and Laurie Goetz are thrilled to announce their newly formed nonprofit corporation and Christian ministry: Restoration Ministries International (RMI), a ministry of evangelism, Bible teaching, prayer, and publishing.

A major focus for Jim is reaching international students. The world is at our door step at Penn State University. The nearby University Park campus has 2,300 international students from 117 nations. Most of them are struggling to learn English, and many come from nations where Christian missionaries are outlawed.
