Before the regular meeting took place ^{the} Board had an intervedw with a Mr. Lee ~~Lee~~ Masters of Union Fidelity Insurance Co. in regard to group insurance for the employees of the church. After a discussion of about 45 minutes the Board decided to give the matter careful consideration and to decidedat a later date just what to dove

Bro. Ambrose then gave a report of the House Committee and told of laying the rubber matting in the balcony, and of the work crew that had come out on Saturday to help. Including the painting of the doors by Bro. George Griffin, and of moving the radiator from the kitchen to the hallway by Bro. Oscar Schmiel. Bro. A motion was made by Bro. Roberson and seconded by Bro. The Board agreed by common conset to give Bro. Wallace Bragg $100.00 for his speaking in the pulpit on October 17th thru the 20th, and to give him the offering taken on Sunday afternoon for his missionary journey to Italy.
